Dedication

For all that you have done for us, the many hours you have spent sharing our joys and helping us through our many problems; we, the Senior Class of Kelloggsville High School, in appreciation for your time and friendship, leadership and guidance, dedicate to you, Mr. Brumels, the 1957 CENTURY.

NEW GYMNASIUM

Foreword

We, the "57" Century Staff, present to you a new and different annual.

Our goal was to preserve the last four of the most wonderful years of our lives. As you read this book in the years to come, we hope it will freshen your memory of many happy moments. And now:

Century Staff

We, having been chosen to serve as your "Annual Staff," began in early September, the second week of school, to put the yearbook together. We worked during noon hours, after three o'clock, and evenings after dinner.

Our Annual Staff spent many hours on the Century. We planned the dummy, had pictures taken, typed copy, and pasted up the pictures.

We tried to change this Century for you and worked hard to meet the deadline dates. We hope that we have made this an interesting book for each of you. In the process of making the dummy we had lots of fun together. When we had completed the book we had a party which we all enjoyed.

Varsity Squad

The Varsity football team displayed a good brand of football under their new coach, Joseph Ruschmann. Good sportsmanship, fine team-play, and rugged football were characteristics of every game. The ten seniors on the team graduate knowing they have been on one of the finest teams at Kelloggsville in the last eight years. As Coach Ruschmann put it, "We had a very successful season."

Reserve Squad

This year's Reserve squad was made up half of freshmen. The squad was not large in numbers so that they received a considerable amount of game experience. They never gave up even when they were beaten by Godwin thirty-five to nothing.

The team realized more than ever before that it takes an all-out effort to do a good job.

Freshman Squad

The 1956-57 Freshman team had a very successful year. They were a group of small but determined young boys. They were willing to accept all advice and instructions given to them by their coach, Mr. Van Domelen. The team as a whole looks like good material for future K. H. S. teams.

The Kelloggsville cheerleaders are divided into three divisions: Freshmen, Juniors, and Varsity. A Varsity cheerleader earns her letter after two complete years of cheering. Those who go out for cheerleading are elected for their leadership, cheering ability, and scholastic achievement.

Lack of height and experience hampered the Rockets' basketball team this season. As the season progressed, however, and the boys gained experience, the team became more victorious. They showed the same "never say die" spirit that distinguished our teams in the past.

Reserves prepare for Varsity

The purpose of the Second Team is to have the Freshmen and the Sophomores gain much needed experience. The score is not the most important factor, it is good playing and the practice gained by the players which count here. This experience on the Second Team is of prime importance in later years.

"Dear Diary," a three-act comedy, by D. Payton, in which Betty Lou Maxwell's weird imagination puts her family into a state of turmoil. Of course, this is all straightened out when the secret of her diary is discovered. Mr. Ritsema was the director, and Joan Romeyn was the student director.

This We Did

It was a warm fall morning in 1944 as we trotted the path to adventure in learning. School life was sprinkled with sun and shadow, but in the sixth grade a bright ray of sunshine broke through as we ventured off boundaries to Detroit for two days on our Safety trip. In the seventh grade the wind erased all shadows as we spent three days at Bostwick Lake.

The skies darkened as we left Junior High and became little storms in Senior High. The warm rays from toboggan parties, hayrides, and dress-up balls, soon melted our cold feelings and gave us more friendliness. Weathermen, Mrs. Martin and Mr. Brummels, predicted fair weather ahead when we sold Christmas cards, magazines, and milk. The gay "Moonlight and Roses" enchanted us at the Rowe Hotel.

Soon we could see the end of the trail where there was a beautiful rainbow and several paths branching in many directions. Our new weathermen, Mrs. Greenwald and Mr. Ritsema, forecasted fair weather as we sold calendars and birthdays, and sponsored dances. Then we saw a side path in the direction of Washington D. C. where we spent five wonderful days.

We reached the end of the trail on June 6, 1957, and had to become our own weather forecasters and choose the way we should proceed.

Donna Campbell Is Mr. Smith's Bride

Miss Donna Mae Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Campbell, Division av., became the bride of Carl Raymond Smith Thursday evening in Immanuel Reformed church. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith, Forty-third st.

White gladioli and pompons decorated the church for the ceremony performed by Rev. Theodore Oegema. Mrs. Bert Kragt was the organist and Mrs. Duncan Baker sang.

The bride was attired in a gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle styled with a sweetheart neckline and a tiered skirt of nylon tulle over satin with lace trim. Her fingertip-length veil fell from a Juliet cap of chantilly lace and white carnations formed her cascade bouquets.

Is Honor Attendant.

Mrs. Philip Westmaas attended as matron of honor wearing a mint green organdy ballerina-length gown with a fitted bodice and scoop neckline. Her headpiece was an open crown organdy hat which matched her gown and she carried a cascade bouquet of buttercup yellow carnations.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald Bowen and Miss Norma Campbell, sister of the bride. Their gowns of buttercup yellow organdy were styled similarly to that of the matron of honor and their cascade bouquets were of mint green carnations.

Miniature bridal couple was Kathy Kay Bowen and Robert Roy Campbell, the bride's brother.

Sye Bowen, jr., served as best man. Guests were seated by Mr. Westmaas and Robert Smith, the bridegroom's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mulholland completed the bridal party as master and mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Mulholland wore a pink linen sheath dress with white accessories.

A reception was held in the church parlors with Mrs. William DeBoer and Mrs. Bowen assisting.

The mother of the bride selected a rose-beige silk crepe dress with white accessories and a corsage of blue carnations. The bridegroom's mother chose a beige linen dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

The newlyweds will reside at 1060 Cricklewood dr., after a western honeymoon. For travel the bride wore a white linen suit.

The reasons for the popularity of paper napkins are easy to list. Their natural convenience, work and time-saving qualities, are perhaps first, but added to these are other reasons for their endearment—their good feel to the skin—what clothing fashion editors would call "the hand"—their strength, absorbancy and versatility.

Next time you entertain, use

To make party favors with paper napkins for a shower, tie them over delicate sachet. Make these in ball shape, and tie with ribbons in lover's knot form. This idea can be adapted to almost any occasion. For instance, for a birthday party for youngsters, you might tie napkins around bubble gum, or candies.

We Glance at the Past

The Senior Class, as we pass through the halls on our last and final journey, bid you farewell. We hope that you will find as much fun and happiness here as we have. We have found friendship . . . gladness and sadness . . . victory and defeat, and now "We look to the future with only a glance at the past."

Dearest Babe,

There's a lot of things Babe I'd like to say, but this is neither the time nor place, but one thing I can say is that, since I've been going with you I've been the happiest girl in the world!!! I hope it never ends! And if it's up to me it never will end!! The reason it's never going to end is "I love you". That may sound funny but it's true!

Hon, no matter what ever happens remember "I love you very much"!
